

To Bicycle Riders

We wish to say that we have a full stock of tires and everything needed for the wheel, and that we are in shape to do all kinds of repairing. If your "bike" is out of repair, bring it in, we will put it in shape for the summer's riding. Bring your umbrellas, guns, locks and all kinds of light repairing. You can have it done right at Hoffman's Repair Dept.

House Cleaning Time

House cleaning time means wall papering time, and both are here. This is the season of the year when the house can be renovated, cleaned and brightened, to the best advantage and with the best results. Spring decorative ideas are always the prettiest and this year's surpass those of any previous periods. The most decorative line of artistic and practical wall papers is to be found at STOKES' DRUG STORE.

STOKE,

the Druggist's, before you place your order. You will be disappointed if you don't.

A Little of Everything.

Sunday is Children's Day. The Women's Relief Corps served ice cream in the Foster block Saturday and Monday evenings. An Italian had his left arm badly lacerated by a fall of coal in Big Soldier mine yesterday forenoon. The regular monthly meeting of town council was held last evening. Minutes will be published next week. Another new No. 4 Smith Premier typewriter has been put in the typewriting department of the Reynoldsville Business College.

Some of the new machinery for Sykes' Woolen Mill has arrived. It will be six weeks yet before the mill will be ready for operation. Eleven members of the P. O. S. of A. Camp of Reynoldsville drove to DuBois Monday evening and visited the P. O. S. of A. Camp at that place. Mrs. Wilson Gross will entertain the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. church at her home in West Reynoldsville next Friday afternoon. D. J. Thomas, register in first precinct, Winslow township, and Joseph Fye, register in fourth precinct of same township, made their returns in Brookville Friday.

H. W. Eason, of the firm of Eason & Co., dealers in gents' furnishings, has been hobbling around the past week on crutches. A poisoned bee is what caused the lameness. Charles H. Young, of Tyler, formerly a citizen of this place, was in town Decoration Day and dropped into THE STAR for another year. J. J. Sutter, while driving from Portland Mills to Reynoldsville Monday, killed a large rattlesnake about one mile this side of John Bartop's. The snake was about four feet long. A Slav came very nearly being drowned in the dam at Big Soldier Monday evening. He was out in the middle of the dam on a float and fell in. Several men happened to be near who could swim and they rescued the Slav.

It is a mean man that will steal chickens from a man who is nursing a broken arm. William Booker had his left arm broken several weeks ago and now while he is unable to work and at extra expense some person has been stealing his chickens.

P. McDonald, who had to undergo an operation at the German Hospital in Philadelphia May 13th for appendicitis, expects to return to his home in this place the last of this week.

Dr. John H. Murray, Ira Smith, William Copping, Henry Deible, Henry Hoppel and John B. Nichols drove to Brookville Monday evening to attend a meeting of Jefferson Chapter—Masonic.

C. W. Hamilton, who is married to a former young lady of this place, Flora Doyle, is moving to Reynoldsville and will live on Jackson street. Mr. Hamilton has been in town a week. He expects his wife here to-day.

Ex-postmaster E. T. McGaw, of Reynoldsville, who is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for county commissioner, is receiving good encouragement from the Democrats he has been able to see in the past week.

Mrs. Joseph T. Guthrie entertained a few little girls at her home in West Reynoldsville Thursday afternoon, May 29th, from 2.00 to 6.00 in honor of Mary Kleinhans' twelfth birthday. The young miss received some nice presents.

Rev. A. J. Meek, pastor of the Baptist church, has made two or three flower beds on the lawn between the church and parsonage and filled the beds with pretty flowers, which adds greatly to the appearance of the Baptist property.

Ross Hawk, of Brookville, and Emma Swab, of Shannondale, who worked in the silk mill at this place sometime, were married at Clearfield on Thursday, May 30th, 1902. They will reside at Brookville. The bride is a sister of H. A. Swab, of this place.

Wireless telephones are now talked of by some of the daily papers as if that would be a new invention, but for once the dailies are behind the times. Robert P. Morrison, a Beechwoods' farmer, says wireless telephones have been in use among Beechwoods farmers for many years.

About 130 persons took in the excursion from Soldier, Rathmel and Reynoldsville Sunday, which was run over the B. R. & P. R'y for accommodation of those who wanted to attend the dedication of the new Catholic church at Eleonora. Bishop Fitzmaurice dedicated the church.

The body of Mrs. M. A. Hall, who died in California May 24th and was shipped to Brookville, did not arrive at the latter place until yesterday. Interment will be made to-day. Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hall went to Brookville Saturday evening expecting the body to arrive there Sunday.

The court house at Brookville will make a fine appearance when the painters, now at work, get through with it. All the woodwork of exterior is being painted white and the brick work will receive two coats of red paint and it will then be penciled white. It will make a decided and much needed improvement.

There were 250 tickets sold at Reynoldsville Friday for DuBois, the day Walter L. Main's show was at latter place. Besides this a number used mileage books on railroad, some drove up, others rode up on bicycles and others walked up. There must have been at least 400 Reynoldsville people in DuBois Friday.

Mrs. Gretena Macro and two daughters, Mrs. Mary Colasanti and Joan Macro, left here Saturday evening on a visit to the central part of Italy. It is likely that Mrs. Macro will never return to America. She owns a home near Rome and she is getting well along in life's journey and will probably spend the remainder of her days in Sunny Italy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Dally, of Penfield, spent last Wednesday night with their daughter, Mrs. G. M. McDonald, in this place and left here Thursday morning on a three months' trip through Illinois, Iowa, Colorado and Oregon. Mrs. Dally will visit a sister whom she has not seen for 35 years. Mr. Dally is ticket and freight agent for P. R. R. at Penfield.

Several weeks ago mention was made in THE STAR that F. A. McConnell, proprietor of Frank's Tavern, would enlarge and modernize his hotel, and it was his intention at that time to begin the work before this, but he has been in poor health a couple of weeks and he said to a representative of THE STAR yesterday that he would not begin the work until he feels better.

W. J. Weaver, register in 2nd precinct of this borough, was in Brookville Saturday making his returns, which shows that there are 400 voters and 400 school children in 2nd precinct, and that there were 36 births and 8 deaths in same precinct during six months. John Trudgens' returns for last precinct was as follows: 347 voters, 302 school children, 30 births and 21 deaths.

Joseph Macro, student in Bucknell University, was at his home in this place a day or two last week to say good bye to his mother and two sisters, who left here Saturday for Italy. The 18th of June Mr. Macro will graduate from the preparatory department of Bucknell and next year will enter the college. Joseph is studying to prepare himself to enter the Baptist ministry and do missionary work among his countrymen—Italians.

Rathmel Club Won. A game of ball was played on the grounds at this place yesterday afternoon between a Reynoldsville club and Rathmel club. The visitors were too fast for our boys. The score was 8:3 in favor of Rathmel club.

Forty Looms Stopped. On account of the silk dyers' strike at Paterson, N. J., the Enterprise Silk Company of this place is having difficulty in getting raw silk to keep the mill running. Last week forty looms had to be stopped and unless the strike is soon ended or the company can get silk some other place the mill will have shut down for want of silk.

Heavy Frost. The heavy frost last Thursday morning destroyed the tender vegetation in the gardens in this section and did considerable damage to the fall grain, but the fruit was not damaged much, only in some sections. Corn and potatoes were nipped, but an experienced farmer said Saturday that the corn and potatoes will come up again.

Winslow Township School Board. The Winslow township school board met at Frank's Tavern in this place Monday and had their accounts for the past year audited and then the new board was organized. W. H. Reber was elected president and Amos Goss was elected secretary. John Dougherty, who was president of the old board, and W. A. London, who was secretary for the board for six years, were the retiring members of the board and W. H. Reber and W. J. Boner are the new members.

Died Saturday. Dr. B. E. Hoover and wife, who were called to Trade City, Indiana county, Sunday May 25th, by serious illness of Mrs. Hoover's mother, Mrs. Frederick Walker, returned to Reynoldsville yesterday. Mrs. Walker died Saturday morning, May 31st, 1902. Catarrh of stomach was cause of her death. Funeral was held Monday. Mrs. Walker was 68 years, 7 months and 9 days old. She had been a member of the Lutheran church for many years and was a devout christian.

Take up a Banter. Friday forenoon John O'Hare, proprietor of the National Hotel, Ben C. Reed, Joseph Weist and several commercial men were in the National Hotel office talking about the circus parade that was to be given at DuBois at noon and impatiently waiting for the time of first banter east, when some one in the party bantered the others to walk to DuBois—nine miles—and walk to DuBois they did, arriving there sometime after those who waited at Reynoldsville for the 11.32 a. m. train.

Has Good Position. Leon D. Ferris, son of Ex-Councilman J. C. Ferris, of Reynoldsville, who went to Pittsburg one year ago and secured a position in the baggage department in the Union depot, was recently appointed assistant foreman of that department at a good salary. Considering the large number employed in that department and that some of them have been there for years, it is evident Leon has proven himself a worthy young man or he would not have been selected for that position, as the Pennsylvania railroad company generally promotes those most worthy.

Large Class Confirmed. Yesterday forenoon Bishop Fitzmaurice, of Erie, confirmed a class of 102 boys and girls—49 boys and 53 girls—in the Catholic church at this place. This is the largest class ever confirmed in the Reynoldsville church. The confirmation ceremonies are performed every three years. The girls were all dressed in white and wore long white veils, making them look very pretty. The congregation was too large for the church and a number of people stood outside. Bishop Fitzmaurice delivered an excellent and instructive sermon before the class was confirmed.

Time Makes Changes. Time certainly makes many changes. Out of a list of 130 men—merchants, mechanics and professional men—doing business in Reynoldsville in 1874, there are now only about eleven remaining. The balance have either retired, moved away or have passed away. The ones doing business then and now, as we recall them, are: Samuel Sutter, J. C. King, M. C. Coleman, D. McCracken, W. B. Alexander, D. Hartman, Albert Reynolds, C. Mitchell, M. M. Davis, J. H. Corbett and D. Wheeler. No one has been omitted intentionally and we would be glad to make any corrections.

Borough School Board. Monday evening of this week the school board of this borough held a meeting and wound up the business of the year just passed and re-organized the board for the coming year. George Mellinger and Dr. J. B. Neale were the retiring members, but Dr. Neale succeeded himself and S. M. McCreech is the new member on board. Joseph S. Hammond was re-elected president of the board and W. H. Bell was re-elected secretary. G. W. Swartz was elected treasurer. The millage laid by the new board is 2 mills less than last year, as follows: School 8 mills, bond 4 mills, building 4 mills.

DECORATION DAY OBSERVED. Keystone Band and Sunday School Children Participate in Paying Honor to Dead and Living Heroes.

At 9.00 a. m. Decoration Day a parade was formed at corner of Main and Fifth streets, composed of boys and girls from Methodist Episcopal, Baptist and Presbyterian Sunday schools, Keystone band, Sons of Veterans, members of Grand Army Post and Women's Relief Corps. They marched up Main street to Beulah cemetery and at the gate of cemetery the Sunday school children halted and opened ranks, allowing the Sons of Veterans and old soldiers to march in, giving them flowers as they passed through the ranks. The usual memorial services were held in the cemetery. A firing squad from S. of V. Camp visited all the cemeteries near here and decorated the graves of Soldiers. Friday afternoon a number of the Sons of Veterans attended the memorial services at Rathmel.

Friday evening a special service was held in the M. E. church. Dr. A. H. Rich, of DuBois, was the speaker of the evening and his address was excellent. Special music was furnished by members from the Baptist, Presbyterian and M. E. choirs.

Mrs. Moore Resigned. Monday evening the West Reynoldsville school board held a meeting and finished up the work of the old board, but did not re-organize because there was not a quorum present after the old board adjourned sine die. Mrs. James M. Moore, a member of the board for a year, tendered her resignation before the old board adjourned and the new directors elected. T. D. Brewer and Charles A. Hoppel, were not present, hence there were not enough directors to re-organize.

It was only at the earnest solicitation of Mrs. Moore that her resignation was accepted, and her reason for resigning was on account of so many other duties to perform and her health is not good. After accepting Mrs. Moore's resignation the board gave her a vote of thanks expressing their appreciation of her service as secretary of the board and of the faithful performance of her duties as school director.

Joseph McKernan and James Moore are the members who retired from the West Reynoldsville school board. The citizens of Beechwoods are as patriotic, peaceable and law-abiding as any class of people to be found in this Commonwealth, and yet there is a limit to their patience and endurance, especially when a person persists in being obstreperous and unreasonable. On Decoration Day, when the people of Beechwoods were gathering on the Washington Township Memorial Association grounds to form in line to march to Beechwoods cemetery, a fellow drove on the grounds with a wagon load of soft drinks, cigars, etc., and began to advertise his business in a boisterous manner, much to the annoyance of those who were trying to form the line into line for the march to the cemetery. The fellow was kindly entreated to move off the grounds, but he stubbornly refused to go and got very impudent and profane. When all other efforts failed to remove the intruder, his wagon was up-set and he was forcibly removed. This certainly was a case of justifiable execution of forcibleness.

Nineteen persons drove over from Eleonora last Thursday evening to attend Mt. Cliff Castle, K. G. E., at this place. Six of the party were initiated in the Buzzard Degree. Refreshments were served after the "goat" was tied and the closing exercises of the lodge performed. The K. G. E. met in Bell's hall and the refreshments were served in the banquetting hall in rear of lodge room.

Dr. Conway at Presbyterian Church. Rev. James Conway, D. D., of Brookville, will preach at the special preparatory services in the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church on Thursday and Friday evenings of this week. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered at the morning service Sunday and Children's Day exercises at the evening hour—7.45. Parents may present their children for baptism at either of the services on Sunday.

The offering on Sunday morning will be for the work of Home mission.

F. A. Grody, salesman for the Erie Pepsin Gum and Candy Co., of Erie, Pa., the "Gem City of the Lakes," was in town Monday distributing samples of the purest pepsin gum ever invented, and is one of the leading selling chewing gums at Butler Brothers' store, so well known to all. Any one who missed getting a sample of the Erie pepsin gum will be at a loss until Mr. Grody returns to the city again.

Gibson, the optician, has visited here regularly for some time and his work is unusually satisfactory.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE. Daniel Bowlby's Wife and Friends Alarmed About His Failure to Return Home.

Daniel Bowlby, who has been an employe at the tannery seventeen years, mysteriously disappeared yesterday afternoon and as we go to press no clue of him has been found, although his relatives and friends searched all night for him. Mr. Bowlby quit work about three o'clock yesterday and said he was going home and that is the last seen of him. When he did not return home at supper time inquiry was made but no one knew anything about him and later in the evening his wife and relatives became much alarmed concerning him. It is claimed that he had been making strange remarks for several days and it is feared his mind has become affected. Mr. Bowlby was married to Joanna Barry a number of years ago. They have three children.

Show Did Not Come. The great Triple Plate show that was advertised to give a grand street parade in Reynoldsville at noon last Saturday and two performances during the afternoon and evening, was so well pleased with the neat little town of New Bethlehem, where they pitched their tents Thursday, that they decided to travel no more and the show disbanded there. It was quite a disappointment to a number of small boys at least that the show did not come to Reynoldsville. To give our readers an idea of what they missed (not by the show failing to come, we clip the following from the East Brady Review of last Thursday: "The Triple-Plate show straggled into town from the direction of Parker Tuesday morning with considerable of the plating worn off. The aggregation has been on the road but two weeks and has been losing money right along. The management called a halt here and seriously considered quitting altogether. They finally agreed to continue for awhile and turn it into a railroad show. Their tent was erected in time for a performance in the evening which was not well attended and was a very slim exhibition. Several of the performers who had tired of their job in the brief but stormy weeks of the show's existence quit before the performance began here."

Murder at Adrian. Early last Thursday morning Andrew Wielek, a Poland, shot and killed a country-man named Michael Waner, near the coke ovens at Adrian. Wielek went to Punxsutawney and gave himself up. He was taken to Brookville jail and will be tried at next term of court. The facts in the case seem to be about as follows: Wielek lived at Anita with his wife and two children. Six months ago Waner secured boarding at Wielek's. Waner became infatuated with Mrs. Wielek and she fell in love with the irresistible Waner. The couple decided to skip out to some other section of the country where they could enjoy life together, and they selected Wednesday night as the time for flight. Sometime after the couple left the house Wielek missed them and followed after. He overtook them at the Adrian coke ovens and tried to persuade his wife to return home with him. She refused to go and Waner drew a knife and threatened to kill Wielek and he shot Waner. The man died in a few minutes. It is reported that Waner had a wife at Buffalo, N. Y.

Obstreperous Chap Dealt With. The citizens of Beechwoods are as patriotic, peaceable and law-abiding as any class of people to be found in this Commonwealth, and yet there is a limit to their patience and endurance, especially when a person persists in being obstreperous and unreasonable. On Decoration Day, when the people of Beechwoods were gathering on the Washington Township Memorial Association grounds to form in line to march to Beechwoods cemetery, a fellow drove on the grounds with a wagon load of soft drinks, cigars, etc., and began to advertise his business in a boisterous manner, much to the annoyance of those who were trying to form the line into line for the march to the cemetery. When all other efforts failed to remove the intruder, his wagon was up-set and he was forcibly removed. This certainly was a case of justifiable execution of forcibleness.

Wedding To-day. At twelve o'clock to-day Miss Laura Wheeler, daughter of David Wheeler, and Ira Bowser, son of Dr. A. H. Bowser, will be united in marriage at the beautiful home of the bride's parents on Hill street. Rev. W. Frank Reber, pastor of the Presbyterian church, will perform the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Bowser will leave here on the 1.30 "flyer" over the P. R. R. this afternoon on a wedding trip. They will visit at Kittanning, Ford City, Pittsburg and other places. This young couple, who are highly esteemed and have a host of friends, will have the congratulations and best wishes of their friends. THE STAR joins in wishing them success and happiness in life's journey.

Store Robbed. About three o'clock this morning robbers entered the store of H. B. Wyse at Rathmel and carried away a full case of jewelry. The case was left on a vacant lot near town. As we go to press the robbers have not been apprehended, but officers are after them. We understand Mr. Wyse's loss is heavy.

Died This Morning. Burl Booth, oldest son of Clarence Booth, of Wilkensburg, died this morning of typhoid fever. Body will be brought to Reynoldsville to-morrow for burial. Deceased is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Booth, of this place. He was about twenty years old.

Children's Day. Children's Day exercises will be held in the M. E. church next Sunday morning and evening. At the morning service the small scholars of the Sunday school will take part in the exercises and in the evening the large scholars will take part.

Committees Working. As stated in THE STAR last week the Sons of Veterans will have charge of the Fourth of July celebration in Reynoldsville this year. It is possible that the committees will have arrangements completed in time to announce the list of attractions in THE STAR next week.

STOKE'S NEW SODA FOUNTAIN. Beautiful Onyx Body—Silver Mounted Arms and Faucets—Modern in Every Respect.

H. Alex Stoke, druggist and one of our prominent business men, has just had a new soda fountain put in his drug store that would be a credit to a large city drug store. It is a beauty. The base is Tennessee marble, the body beautiful imported onyx and the top hand-polished oak. There are five French-plate mirrors on top, and as soon as the wires arrive it will be illuminated at night with electric lights. Three 3-cluster lights and two single lights will be suspended in front of the mirrors. The fountain is 7 feet six inches high and 12 feet 3 inches long with a 42 foot refrigerator in base of fountain. Tinting jars with hard rubber faucets, are used for syrups. The draught-arms and faucets are heavily plated with silver. It is a 20 syrup apparatus with two draught-arms, or a double fountain, so that two persons can work it at one time. The liquid carbonating machine is in the cellar. It is far superior for speed and ease to the old way of charging soda fountains. It is so arranged that there is no danger of running out of "phiz," no matter what demand is made on the fountain. It is a modern soda fountain in every particular. The soda counter is 25 feet long, with Tennessee marble slab on top, giving room to accommodate a large number of persons at one time. Mr. Stoke deserves credit for being enterprising enough to buy such an expensive soda fountain.

Memorial Day in Beechwoods. A few years ago the old soldiers and other patriotic citizens of Beechwoods organized the Washington Township Memorial Association, the purpose of which is to see that Memorial Day is properly observed in that section. During the past year, through the kindness of Ninian Cooper, of this place, the Association secured four or five acres of ground near the Waite school house, where they have been holding their memorial meetings ever since the Association was organized. They meet on the grounds in the forenoon, march to cemetery, which is nearby, decorate the graves of the old comrades that sleep beneath the sod of that silent city, then return to the Association grounds and partake of the contents of well filled baskets. In the afternoon Memorial Day speeches are listened to. It is estimated that there were at least 4,000 people present last Friday, the largest crowd that ever assembled in Beechwoods on Decoration Day. Rev. Baker, of Newbury, former pastor of the Brookwayville Presbyterian church, was the orator of the day, and he delivered a fine address.

Wedding To-day. At twelve o'clock to-day Miss Laura Wheeler, daughter of David Wheeler, and Ira Bowser, son of Dr. A. H. Bowser, will be united in marriage at the beautiful home of the bride's parents on Hill street. Rev. W. Frank Reber, pastor of the Presbyterian church, will perform the ceremony.
